Announcing the buyND+ Mobile App

We all love our smartphones. Voice calls, texting, email and calendaring are all daily activities we have access to right at our fingertips. So why not utilize our phones more to speed the procurement process and help keep things moving while traveling or away from the office?

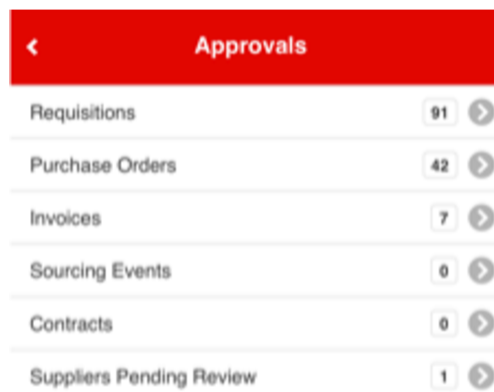

With the buyND+ (Jaggaer) mobile app you have access to a secure mobile app that allows you to view attachments and comments, plus approve purchase orders, and requisition orders on-the-go. You can also identify other approvers to keep the workflow moving.

Functionality:

The buyND+ (Jaggaer) mobile app offers you the following functionality:

- Seamless shopping
- Access to supplier catalog interfaces and other procurement features via web browsers
- The full eProcurement shopping experience with premium shopping and approval features.
- Access to real-time pricing with the Mobile LivePrice, and receive important time-saving features, such as draft carts, a favorites folder, and requisitioner assignment.
- Management review and approval actions within the app for requisitions and purchase orders

Quick Reference Guide and Video:

Step-by-step information on how to download the app will be available when this feature is active in buyND.
